Do You Qualify?

The growth of our MMS organization is based on several factors:

- Attitude
- Agreement
- Belief
- Capability
- Communication
- Compensation
- Commitment
- Desire
- Willingness
- Win-win

When you express a desire to promote, produce, and present MMS courses in your area of the world, you are given the opportunity to demonstrate your ability to manifest your intentions and goals. The normal and customary period for this “experimental” Intern phase is three programs produced consecutively, with an evaluation at the end.

After successful promotion and marketing of the specific course, it is then deemed appropriate for one of the MMS qualified leaders to present the requested program. You will meet with one of the MMS directors, ideally, Lynn U. Stewart to specify the terms of your license. If the license is to extend to a large territory, then you may opt to become a “Master Licensee.”

Both leaders and licensees share the desire, the willingness, the belief, and the commitment to serve and support their communities through training, personal development, and coaching. They also possess an attitude of gratitude toward MMS, its directors, and a loyalty toward the organization that gave them this opportunity to make a difference in a very specific manner, and to earn their livelihood, at least in part through making a profound difference in people’s lives.

LCV

Licensing Partners since 2015

"Becoming MMS Licensee in Vietnam is one of the smartest choices I have in my life. Since our first MMS Coach Training program in Ho Chi Minh City Vietnam in 2015, there have been 120 coaches (updated 2020) who are properly and officially trained by the best coaches in the world from MMS: Dr. Chérie Carter-Scott, Coach Michael Pomije and coach Lynn U. Stewart. We have hundreds of books by Dr Chérie. We have had 9 programs with MMS (and counting). Throughout our partnership, my company LCV has been trained and mentored by MMS, producing significant results not only in business but also our individual personal lives. We have grown at pace we could never have imagined. We trained 70% of the ACCs in our country. We are loved and blessed by our clients, both individuals and corporates. We are at the top of people's minds when anyone mentions "coaching." We have become the best coaching organization in Vietnam!"

Vietnam Graduates

“The beauty of our relationship with MMS is that we have mutual respect for each other. We make each other’s jobs easier through support, communication and trust. We resolved difficulties when they were just tiny flames through direct communication and good will. I asked for a lot and my wishes were granted with MMS, shared my dreams and goals, arranged the logistics to fit with MMS’ availability and schedule and I asked for support. Then my requests were fulfilled with amazing results. There were times when we had people signing up for our MMS Coach Training on the spot. In a nutshell, our relationship is like a happy marriage that is totally worth it!”

“I want there to be more MMS licensees teaching the MMS Coach Training in all countries, everywhere! When that happens, it will mean the world has more people benefiting from the MMS coaching method based on preferences, choices, heart, and focusing on the undeniable truth within each one of us. The MMS method shapes the coaching industry in a revolutionary way and prepares us for a future with truly authentic beings making the world a better place for everyone.”

“The MMS Coach Training had a transformational impact on my life. It started a huge process for me where I discovered my purpose, my passion and my power.

What fascinates me is that MMS does not only train excellent coaches but empowers individuals to discover the best version of themselves. And when these individuals become a brilliant coach, they lift up their clients to uncover their purpose, potential, passion and power- that is exactly what I experienced personally and witnessed many others.

I am proud that now I can be part of this beautiful family and extend its amazing impact that creates a profound ripple effect in the world.”

"We are thrilled and honored to be licensees of The MMS Worldwide Institute, LLC. This work has enriched our life in so many beautiful ways. Being a licensee keeps us engaged in the work and gives us the opportunity to share it with others. It's an honor to continue to train and enrich people's lives with Dr. Chérie's MMS work that enables her to fulfill her life's purpose."

We feel completely supported by the staff and, of course, Dr. Chérie, Michael, and Lynn. They have been by our side encouraging us on our journey to bring the ACSTH MMS Coach Training and the Inner Negotiation Workshop back to our Northern California community, where it started. They have shared all the training materials and have been extremely generous with their wisdom and time."

If you have the message to carry the torch, we strongly recommend you go for it! The Directors are great partners and give you all the space you need to find your own way, while simultaneously encouraging and supporting you until you feel totally ready to take the reins yourself. You can always count on their word. It means so much to be associated with people who are honest, straightforward, and have integrity."

What Makes MMS Special

With a successful track record (since 1974) of successfully training coaches worldwide, plus managing change in Multi-national corporations, and conducting public trainings, workshops and seminars in US, Europe, and Asia, MMS has demonstrated commitment, agility, and resilience. We are committed to excellence, unlimited possibilities, and client satisfaction.

With our founder, Dr. Chérie Carter-Scott, Master Certified Coach, leading the way since 1974, we have “The Mother of Coaching” at the helm. Dr. Cherie is not only a successful global entrepreneur, a #1 NYT bestselling author in 40 languages (19 titles) a media personality who has appeared on Oprah, The Today Show, CNN, (and dozens of others), she is the curriculum designer who has made our original programs nimble enough to be presented in more than 30 countries. She is a featured coach in LEAP, the first coaching documentary film; she is the composer, lyricist and co-writer, for The Workshop, A Dress Rehearsal for Life! musical. With Dr. Cherie guiding the MMS organization, our brand, along with our impeccable reputation, and dedication to excellence, our notoriety has spread steadily across the globe.

MMS empowers passionate, purposeful pioneers to bring our MMS work, accredited by the International Coaching Federation (ICF), to every corner of the world.

MMS has remained ahead of the curve maintaining its pure essence, while integrating technology (IT) with the critical interpersonal (EQ) skills required for any change management initiative. Our approach has demonstrated success in mergers, acquisitions, expansion, reorganization, and reinvention. In every project we start with our MMS four essential pillars:

- Desire for positive change
- Willingness to do what is required
- Belief that the vision is possible to realize
- Commitment to completing the mission successfully

MMS honors our core values: accountability, alignment, authenticity, choice, collaboration, communication, community, honesty, integrity, quality, respect, responsibility, trust, and willingness.

MMS encourages these principles, we teach others how to embody them, and we do our very best to lead by example.

Frequently Asked Questions

1. What is the purpose of the licensing program?

With over four decades of experience in motivating and coaching others, we are pleased to present for the first time an opportunity to our friends, associates, and neighbors worldwide. MMS Worldwide Institute, LLC. offers an innovative licensing program where qualified individuals learn the intricacies of Dr. Cherie's work and teaching methods. In addition, they will obtain a license to conduct the seminars and workshops with those in their region. By learning how to inspire and motivate others, licensees will help empower, engage, and enlighten worldwide.

The licensing program is for those who want to be part of an international network, lead programs created by Dr. Cherie, and develop their own training and development firm. The Licensing Program is for those who wants to expand their scope to include workshops and seminars that have a 47-year track record of success.

2. Have licensing prices been established for each licensing option?

Pricing will vary with the size of each territory, the programs selected, the timeframe, and the privileges granted under the license. You can inquire about licensing at michaelpomije@gmail.com.

3. What is being licensed?

First and foremost is our MMS Transformational Executive Certified Coach Training program, either in the 60-hour format or in the 125-hour format. This is our most popular program globally, and one that we have developed to be user-friendly. In addition, we have categorized all of our licensing opportunities into six general categories. For each of these options, there are a variety of seminar, workshop, and book choices that are available. You may license one seminar, or several.

4. Will there be regions or territories assigned?

Yes. Licensees will be granted a right to offer trainings, seminars, and workshops in a geographic area in which they have a presence, a network, and specific expertise. In addition, online programs are also offered.

5. What previous experience is required?

You need to have a functional network, entrepreneurial knowledge and desire to be a trainer for a corporation. If you have the drive, willingness, and time to devote to promoting, producing, and presenting programs of the highest quality. Dr. Chérie, Michael and their team of experts will be working with you and your organization on an individual level to ensure that you are proficient in the content being licensed. We do have Zoom recordings that are used to study the way to deliver our MMS TECC Coach Training.

6. What is the process?

- Review the attached list of licensing options.
- Review our website: themmsinstitute.com.
- Complete the Licensing application form online to the best of your ability. Michael Pomije will review it and contact you to discuss licensing options. See page 10 for more information about the process and steps.

7. Once I am granted a license, how quickly can I get started?

You can start immediately! Fill out the online application form to apply. Then make contact with Michael Pomije, Global Director.

Step 5

- Discuss financial investment
- Celebrate success and acknowledge the learnings!

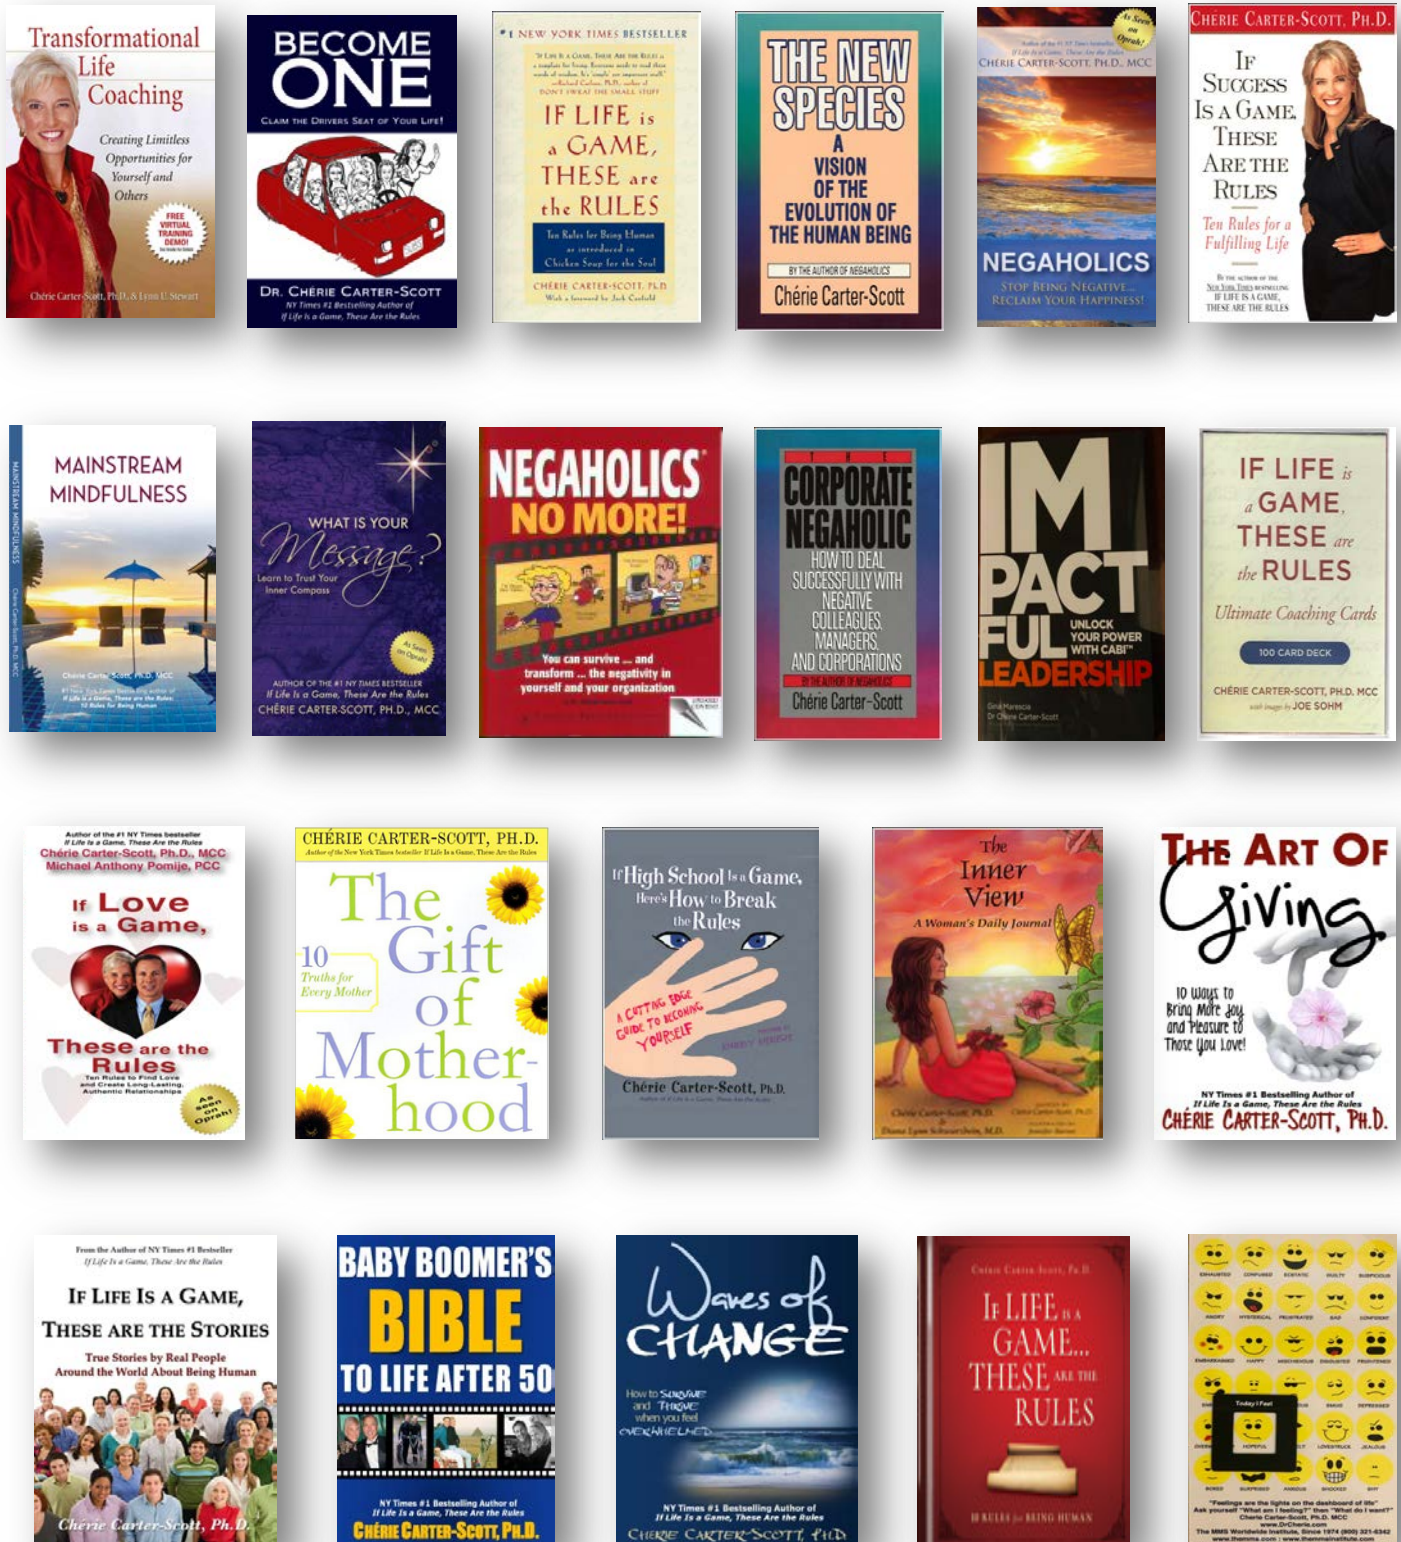

If Becoming an MMS Licensee is a Game, These are the Rules!

MMS Licensees must:

- 1. Conduct all business affairs in an honorable manner with confidentiality.
Honor means to show respect, dignity, admiration, and to uphold one's good reputation. This is the kind of relationship that we want with all our Licensees.
- 2. Be "proactive" about resolving any potential conflicts.
Planning, scheduling, organizing, ordering, budgeting, and booking all require coordination, alignment, deployment, and follow through. When expectations are met or exceeded, there are no issues. It is when expectations are unfulfilled that problems can surface. We want to anticipate any potential concerns and take preventive steps to ensure success.
- 3. Take responsibility for actions and results.
Beliefs and decisions tend to result in self-fulfilling prophecies. People who take responsibility for decisions, beliefs, behaviors, and actions will never blame other people or circumstances for situations that don't meet their expectations. Make your attitude one that looks at cause and effect rather than assigning blame to anyone.
- 4. Over communicate in all modes: (E-mail, Mobile, Voice Mail, Skype, Zoom).
Ensure your intentions are stated, not implied. Follow up on all e-mails and calls within 24 hours to make certain that they have been received and responded to. Avoid assumptions and create communications that are honest, open, direct, complete, and timely.
- 5. Formulate win-win agreements.
We only want to enter into agreements that are win-able for all involved. We ask our Licensees to only commit to what is sincerely probable. In other words, "Under promise and over deliver."
- 6. Be committed to respectful dispute resolution.
If a disagreement should arise, as can happen, be willing to resolve all concerns in a respectful manner with the person involved. Ask questions rather than jumping to conclusions and address concerns only with the person involved, to avoid rumors and case building.
- 7. Reflect on the lessons learned.
When a project is complete, pause to assimilate what you have learned. See what you want to duplicate and what you want to change for the next time. Continuous improvement comes from examination, choice, and implementation.
- 8. Maintain an attitude of gratitude.
Being a Licensee of The MMS Institute is a three-way "gift." First, you have the opportunity to contribute to people's lives, second, you are remunerated for it, and third, you yourself grow and develop each day. The MMS Institute is a vehicle for you to help people transform their lives while simultaneously growing yourself!

Making the World a Better Place!

Individually we are raindrops, yet, together we are an ocean

“Building bridges, not walls.” Dr. Chérie Carter-Scott, MCC

We are not alone... we have people tugging at us attempting to help. Be they parents, teachers, friends, colleagues, bosses, even our children who know and tell us what we should do and how we should be. There seems to be no time to rest, reflect, and recharge.

Requests and demands are constantly presented, while we are attempting to sort out who we are, want to become, while determining the best use of our time, energy, and talents.

We are all born perfect, with our innate abilities, special gifts, and preferences. Just like the snowflake with all its unique qualities, we all endeavor to make the best use of our gifts before we melt.

The challenge is how to live this life, sort out the delicate balance between those answers that come from inside and the dictates of the world outside. While we are learning the totality of what it means to be fully human, we have the opportunity to connect to our natural knowing.

In 1974 Dr. Chérie Carter -Scott wrote “The Rules for Being Human.” The Rules give us the guidelines to live a spiritual existence in a material world. To utilize the rules fully, they need to be supported by a conscious community of people committed to right action, kindness, and the empowerment of all through emotional safety. We train coaches to ask courageous questions to be the best compassionate version of themselves, and to be curious so that people can connect to the core of their existence.

We all need support. Support in establishing a clear vision. Support to execute the strategy. Support to stay the course in order to realize the dream!

We will support you through the ups and downs, the confusion, uncertainty, doubt, and challenges; and then you breakthrough to your victories. We support each other to stay the course, live the MMS principles, and uplift the community to the best vision of humanity. The 12 rules for living the process help each coach to live as a coach.

Welcome to MMS family. Thank you for wanting to make a difference, for bringing the MMS work to those you care about. Thank you for bringing emotional safety, kindness, and permission to your area of the world. You are a representative of doing the right thing, for the right reason. Thank you for listening to your calling!

With appreciation,

Michael Pomije, MCC
